The "Back to School" Special:

Will the "real" Schoolboys and Prettyboys stand up?

By Frank Mizrahi
with assistance from
Greg Prodigy

"Schoolboy Realness" and "Prettyboy realness" are two classic categories in the house ball scene. Unlike categories such as "vogue femme" or "European runway", which highlight and celebrate femininity and extravagance, "Realness" is all about (black) masculinity and B-Boy flava. These boys rather wear Fitted caps, bookbags and baggie jeans over halter-tops and tight jeans. But nowadays it seems like everyone wants to jump on the "realness" bandwagon, without really having what it takes. Will the real schoolboys and prettyboys please stand up? Here's 10 boys that bring home "Grade A" report-cards each and every time.

1. Dash Prodigy

6. Greg Prodigy

2. Dash Prodigy

7. Joel Aphrodite

3. Lil' Rodney Balenciaga

8. Nylen Prodigy

4. "The Aga Twins"
Anthony & Andre
Balenciaga

9. Bo 007

5. Wylik Miyake Mugler

10. Mikey Khan

1. "The Head of the Class" Dash Prodigy

Charlotte, North Carolina
"Winner: PrettyBoy Realness "Of The Year" in New York City, Philadelphia & Washington, D.C.

Originally from Liberia, this Philly resident debuted in 2005 and has already swept PrettyBoy "Of the Year" in NYC, Philly & DC. Since his launch, he's definitely been at the head of the class. He has also been dubbed as one of the sexiest Butch Queens in Philly and NYC. This year he also has been paying his dues in the sex siren category. Just makes you wanna....Dash!

2. Face Ebony New York City, New York

This 23-year-old Philadelphia native is a Pretty Boy statement. He has been turning it since 2001 and continues to be one of the strong competitors in his category. Nominated for Prettyboy, Schoolboy and Statement "Of The Year" numerous times, it's not hard to see why. You can catch him lately venturing off into his new category "realness with a twist" and making himself known as an all around realness guy.

3. Lil' Rodney Balenciaga Washington, D.C.

"Winner: Schoolboy Realness of the Year in NYC & Washington, D.C.

Though Lil Rodney Aga debuted just last year in 2005, he has already gained Schoolboy Realness "Of the year" titles in NYC and DC. Rodney's known as one of the "bad boys" of the schoolboy clan, but it's all just a necessary allusion. It's the Balenciaga way!

4. "The Aga Twins" Anthony & Andre Balenciaga Washington, D.C.

"Winners: 2004 "Schoolboy Realness of the Year", New York City, Philadelphia, Washington, D.C. & Richmond, Virginia

These sexy 23 year old twins are originally from VA, and currently reside in Washington DC where they debuted in 2004 and have rock socked ever since. Collectively, they hold Schoolboy Realness "Of The Year" Titles in NYC, Philly, DC, Richmond as well as nominations in Atlanta and The Midwest. Clearly, between the two of them, it's hard to compete with this dynamic duo! Now venturing off into the Realness w/a Twist category, the Aga Twins continue stay true to their schoolboy beginnings even while trying new things.

5. Wylik Miyake Mugler Chicago, Illinois

"Winner: Prettyboy Realness "Of The Year" in Atlanta, Chicago & Detroit

Originally from New Orleans, this 21 year old ballroom heartthrob holds Prettyboy Realness "Of the year titles" in Atlanta, Chicago & Detroit. Former the posterboy for the Legendary House of Escada, Wylick will undoubtedly continue to flourish as one of the vibrant new additions to the House of Miyake-Mugler.

6. Greg Prodigy Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

Originally from the Ballroom Capital NYC, Greg currently resides in Philly where he became the ruler of schoolboy in that city. Debuting at the Legends ball in 2005. he quickly made a name for himself. With nominations in NYC, wins in Philly, Baltimore, DC and Chicago, little man has been doing his thing from state to state. But when he's not walking a ball, he's a young journalist in training. You can catch him taking notes and reporting back on the balls for the kids on the popular ballroom website www.walk4mewednesdays.com. What a good schoolboy!

7. Joel Aphrodite New York City, New York

This exotic 18 year old debuted this past year in 2006 and has been an automatic winner out of the gate. With his knockout elimination at the Capitol Awards Ball in DC, he has also won titles in NYC, Philly & Detroit. Since then, Joel Aphrodite has been one to look out for each and every time he hits the floor. Still fresh and new, we're sure he has more to show us in the near future. Aphrodite's, we ain't made at ya!

8. Nylen Prodigy Los Angeles, California

Now who said light-skin was out? Originally from NYC, but now currently residing in Los Angeles, Nylen is achieving major fame from state-to-state. With less than 12 full months in the scene, he's already been honored with an "Of The Year" nomination in NYC. Known for bringing his effects to life and recreating various "schoolboy" personas, Nylen represented the new generation of heavy hitters in the category.

9. Bo 007 Danville, Virginia

This strikingly handsome Black and Portuguese schoolboy has been walking since 2004. Previously a member of the House of Ebony as well as the House of Allure, Bo has been turning heads as the latest prettyboy on the block with classic All American poise. When he's off the ballroom floor, he's busy maintaining a 3.8 GPA in college as an aspiring Pharmacist. Do the dam thing! With such an all-around good package, we're predicting that "Bo" will be a household name in the ballroom scene by the end of 2006. Just remember, Flavalife predicted it first!

10. Mikey Khan New York City, New York

A Bronx native with a big heart and glowing smile, little Mikey Khan has continued to make a name for himself ever since his late 2005 debut at the Latex ball. Recent wins in hot spots like NYC & Boston have helped to continue to put Mikey in the forefront of his category. The backbone of the New York City chapter of the House of Khan, he'll be a tough one to beat at many functions to come.

House Spotlight: The Legendary House of Mizrahi

Founded in 1992 By
ANDRE OVAHNESS LA-
BEIJA REVLON AND HEIDI
ALLURE

Closed from 1999-2005

Re-born in
May 2005 at the New York City Awards Ball

Parents:

Andre
(Founder/ Overall Father)

Tregonie (Overall Mother) & Jack (National Overseer)

Ruben (Father New York City)

Barbie (Mother Virginia)
Jermaine (Father Virginia)

Vanessa (Mother Miami) Hector (Father Miami)

JJ (Mother L.A.), Duke (Father L.A.)

Melvin Mizrahi (Father North Carolina)

Chuck (Father Chi) Raven (Mother Chi)

Octavia (Godmother)

Chapters:

New York City, Atlanta, Miami, Chicago, Los Angeles

House Motto:

"You cant help but look at me...
look at me bitch!"

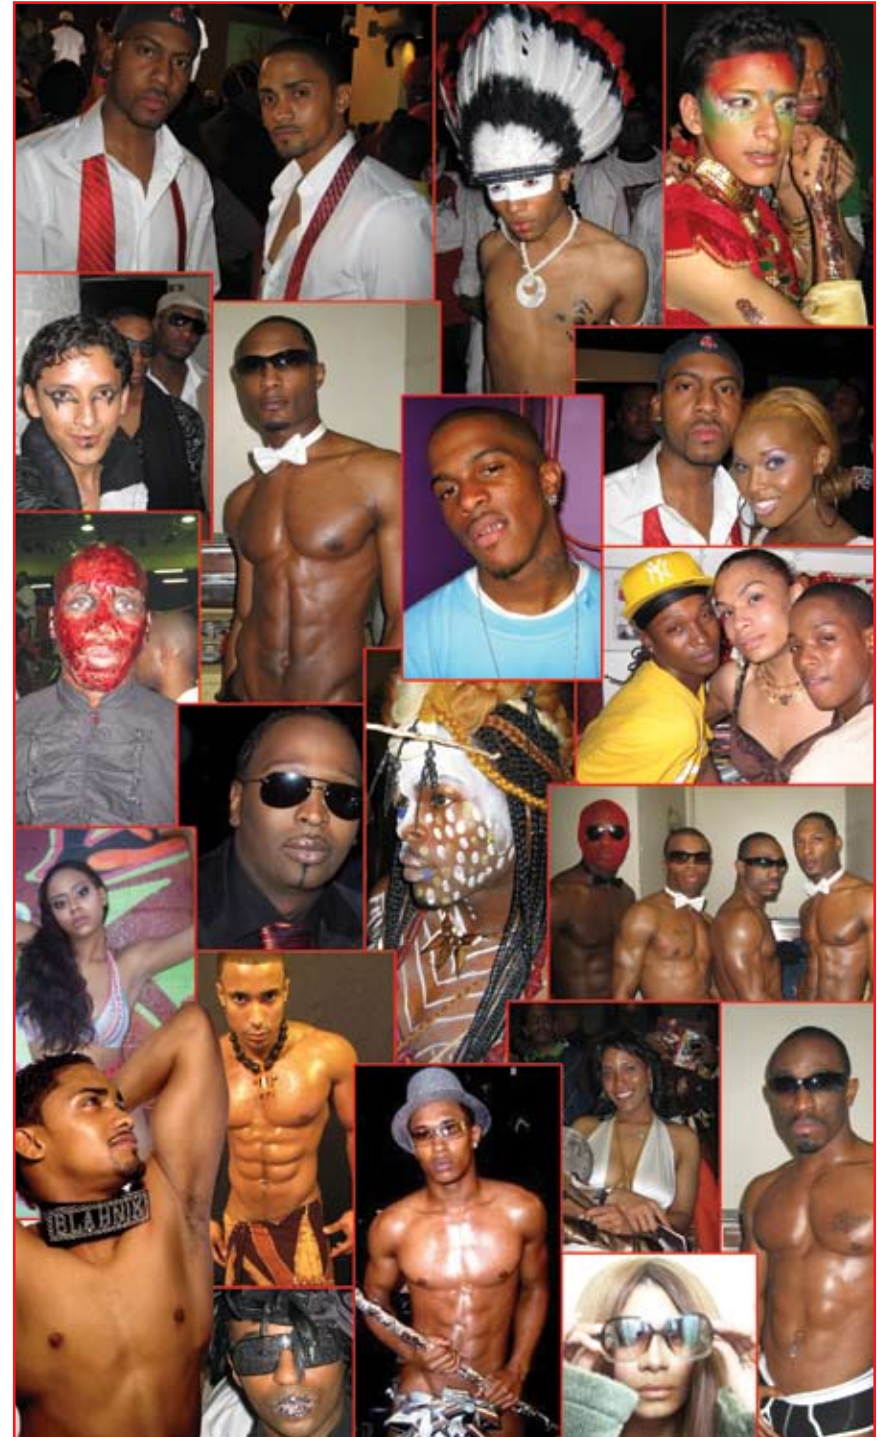

Like it or not, few people in the ballroom scene would deny that in the year 2006 the House of Mizrahi reigned supreme. After a six year hiatus from 1999 to 2005, the house re-opened at the 2005 New York City Award's Ball and has been on fire again ever since. With icons like Andre, Octavia, and Ricky; legends like Jack, Selvyn, Carrie and Vanessa; Statements like Barbie, Tregonie, Ruben and Twain and Stars like Amiyah, Jorge, and Leyomi, its hard to deny the tremendous impact this house has had on contemporary ballroom history.

And the votes are in: the Mizrahi's were named "House Of The Year" in four cities this year: New York City, Atlanta, Miami, and Los Angeles, making them one of the first houses to sweep this title all across the country. So what is the Mizrahi formula? Showstopping Parents + Controversy + Powerful Commentators + Team Spirit seems to keep the Mizrahi's on everyone's house gossip list.

Not only do the Mizrahi's have the hottest sex sirens in the land (Ruben, Confessor, Jorge, Twain, Manny, Baby, Chuck, Dash, JT), the realest ladies in the business (including Mother Barbie and Tregonie) and some the baddest runway divas from state-to-state (Jermaine, Martez, Keith, Caliente, and Rickey to name a few) they also have the power of legendary commentators Jack and Selvyn Mizrahi to back them up. And let's not forget about the newest princess of the house-ball scene: Atlanta's lovely Amiyah Mizrahi. At the Collections Ball 2006 in New York City, the house soared to Grand Prize, winning the most trophies of any other house and taking home $5,000.

The House of Mizrahi was founded in 1992 by the then Andre Revlon and Heidi Allure, and quickly became known for performance divas such as Deja, Deedee, and Ray Ray, as well as beautiful "femme queens" such as Carrie, Vanessa, and Sania.

All eyes will be on the House of Mizrahi for their first national house ball in nearly ten years in New York City on November, 11th 2006 "Cirque du Soleil".

Dashaun Evisu
New York, NY

You can't think of dramatics nor Evisu without thinking of Dae Dae 5000! He put himself in a class of his own when he won the $5000 Grand Prize at the 2005 Atlanta Awards Ball. His smooth, strong, dark chocolate physique is sexy with a personality that is completely inviting. But sorry, this Of The Year phenomenon is taken. However, looking from afar is definitely not a crime!

Chris Balenciaga
Chicago, Illinois

Originally hailing from St. Louis, Chris' career became hot business after moving to Chicago. While remaining victorious in one of the most controversial battles in 2006 with Pony Blahnik, Chris made the mark of being one to look at this year. With his second year of performance approaching, Chris surely won't have a problem achieving vogue fem gold. And being a cutie surely doesn't hurt!

it up! Kevin has been one to keep the performance clean, classic and oh so sexy! Still mixing it up with the new girls and allowing them to battle a legend is something that Kevin feels should teach the new generation. If you have the opportunity to battle this sex kitten, make sure you turn up the sex, for it will definitely be hot in the building!

Foxy Milan
New York, NY

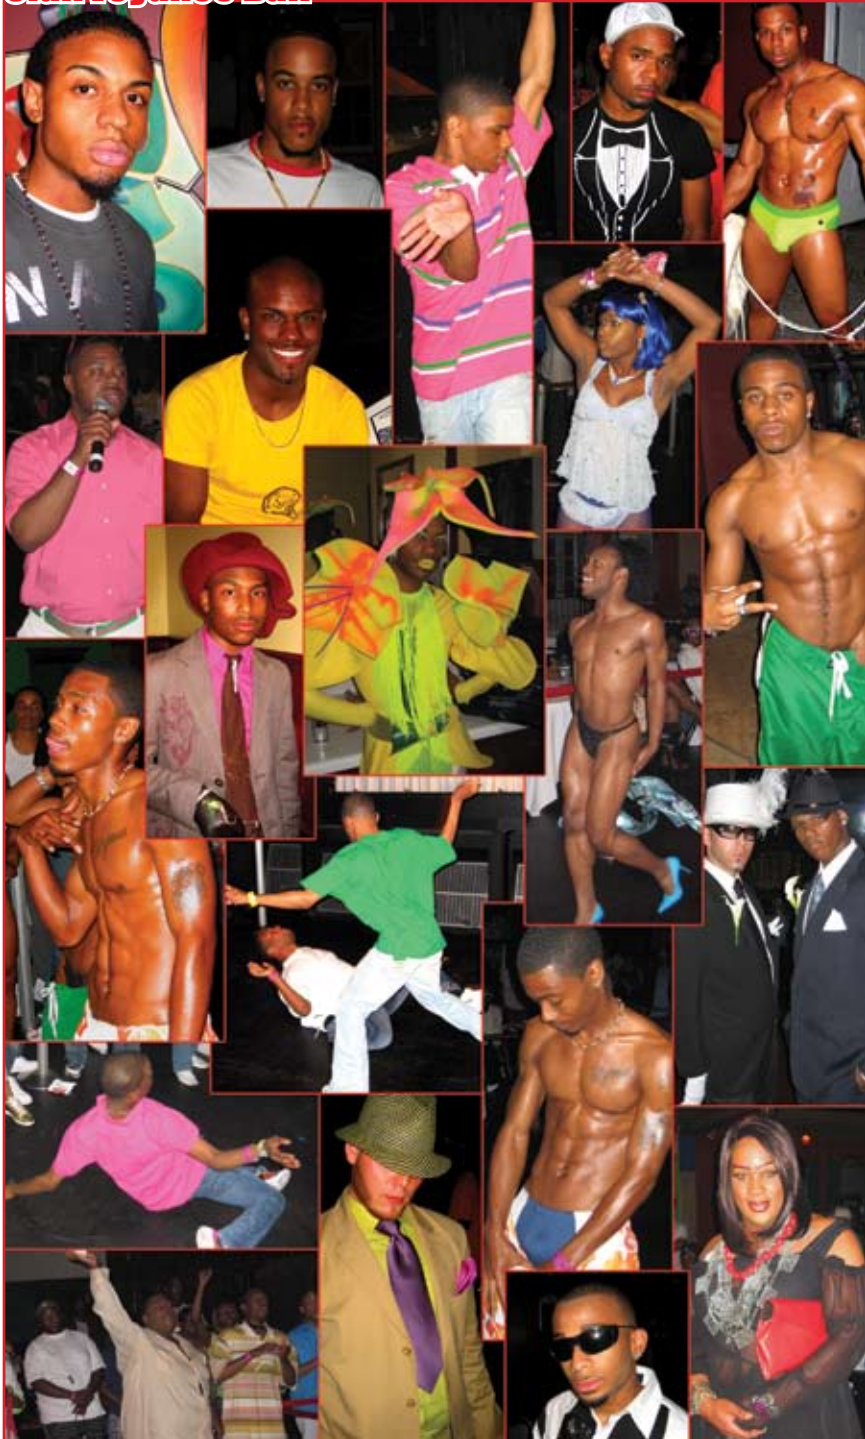

Sassy and Sexy is exactly how we can describe this talented vogue femme diva. From her early days as a Khan and as an Ebony, to her current affiliation with the House of Milan, Foxy is the queen of vogue femme seduction. Don't sleep on her, she's already a statement and she's sure to eventually enter the pantheon of the true legendary Vogue femme divas.

PITBULL

An Interview by Devin

Sometimes ya just can't help but be attracted to danger: that thug on the corner that looks like he'd cut your throat if ya asked to go down on him ... that hot, VERY married guy with the tight butt you wanna make a play for in the grocery store ... and let's not even go there about that hot 19-year-old Latino your sister was dating two months ago.

But everyone knows not to mention with a pitbull; by very nature they are known to be excellent to have around the house, and fiercely loyal. But time after time, ya hear stories about a fool who crossed the path of the wrong one at the wrong time – and got dealt with accordingly.

Nothing different here, as this month's coverman is a sleek, mean, fierce machine – the fierce Black/Latin mix that works so well in Pitbull also extends to his personal life ...

DEVIN: Why "Pitbull"?

PITBULL: It's who I am, bro – a dawg from da hood who protects what it loves and annihilates what doesn't respect it. The name grew from the tattoo, but it's definitely my personality.

DEVIN: Have you always been like that?

PITBULL: Yeh, I grew up with some sisters, and though I was younger I always felt like I had to watch out for them. I respect da ladies, for real. Blood or not. My moms is numero uno with me.

DEVIN: Well yeah, you definitely got testosterone coming out of every pore. What made you decide to pose for FlavaLife?

PITBULL: The money, for one. But the more I got to thinking about it, the more the idea turned me on. I like being looked at.

DEVIN: Even by men?

PITBULL: Why not? If someone admires ya, tells you you look good, that's respect. Long as tha brothas don't touch.

DEVIN: And the sistahs?

PITBULL: The can touch whatever they want.

DEVIN: Does that mean you don't have a current lover? Or do you just play around?

PITBULL: My playin' around days are over, man; I'm 26 now, grown up - an employed, hardworking Black man with a shitload of pride and a truckload of plans for my future.

DEVIN: Such as?

PITBULL: One lady – if I can find the right one. And I finish up school this year, then go into the medical field. Maybe more modeling.

DEVIN: More modeling? Do we see a nude photo spread in your future?

PITBULL: Man, I never say never, but I kinda doubt it. A pitbull has gotta have some mystique. Sometimes what you hide is more important than what you show.

DEVIN: More erotic too, sometimes.

PITBULL: Yeh, you right. But get me a Nia Long look-a-like, who'll let go hard through her back-door – and we'll talk.

SEX THE SINGLE MAN AND HIV.... by Reginald T. Naji-Allah

The reality is if you are a African-American or Latino Same Gender Loving man in the United States almost one out of every two men you meet has HIV. This is a sad fact that 25 years into the AIDS pandemic the numbers have not been worse. Having been unfortunate enough to have lived through the first round of HIV/AIDS and to have lost, as a result, over 50 friends, 2 brothers and 1 boyfriend, I have had to ponder many questions since 1979. 1979 was when my brother and his wife ---my best friend ---called me to their house in a panic to tell me they would be dead of "gay cancer" in six months. My best friend and sister --in-law lived until 1984 and my brother lived until 2005.

Once I came out in 1986, I was so terrified of catching HIV/AIDS so I took a vow of celibacy for two years to figure this whole same gender loving thing and sexual thing out. If sex with men might cost me my life, I needed to be 100% sure I knew what I was doing. For two years I tried to keep my sanity as my hormones raged, I became a rising star in the black gay community surrounded by drop dead gorgeous men trying to get my attention and struggling to sort out all the crazy advise I was getting from my so called good girlfriends: "you have to go to Bathhouses for sex; you have to go to the parks for sex; you have to go to x-rated movie theaters for sex; you have to go to sex clubs for sex." How could any of this be safe? Was sex so important I had to risk getting HIV/AIDS? I don't think so.

On Christmas night, 1989, my baby brother, who is also same gender loving, introduced me to my first lover. I was a virgin and he was a virgin, so we decided to have sex without condoms. This was an enormous responsibility we put on each other to protect our lives from STDs and HIV/AIDS. What I quickly realized was that he couldn't keep his dick in his pants and cheated on me every chance he got. At first I rationalized the risk to my health by believing his lies that he only participated in mutual masturbation or oral sex with his outside interests; and saved the real sex (intercourse) only for me. For five years I lived in this fantasy land until one day a friend brought over a porno tape and put it into my VCR. I didn't like or watch porno, so I was not particularly interested in what was on the screen, that is until my lover of five years appeared on the screen and proceeded to have unprotected sex with another porno star. What really blew my mind was that my "homo-thug" macho man lover was getting fucked down by some big dick B-Boy without any condom and loving it. My life passed before my eyes. I saw red -- not anger -- but the scarlet red positive symbol. Needless to say that relationship was over, but my drama was just beginning. I had to not only take my first HIV test and wait the two weeks for the results, which almost killed me, but I had to swallow the hard pill that it would require at least two more HIV tests over the next six months to actually determine my HIV status. Talk about hell on earth.

Six months later I was still negative thank GOD, but scared to death to have sex with another man. I almost lost my life! Once bitten, twice shy, right? But life long celibacy wasn't really an option; even Catholic priests couldn't seem to pull that one off. So who was I kidding? After many discussions with my therapist and various HIV counselors, I came up with the only reasonable plan of action that anyone who is sexually active then or now should follow: PROTECT YOURSELF EVERY SINGLE TIME. NO GLOVE, NO LOVE. RAP IT UP! From that day forward I decided to assume every man I slept with had at least been exposed to HIV, if not had full blown AIDS. This solved the celibacy question, but raised a whole set of new questions which still face the single, same gender loving man of today, so I would like to offer some advice on them: 1. Do I ever want to date a person I know has HIV or AIDS? 2. What is the etiquette of dating someone with HIV or AIDS? 3. What about the safety issues for me as the negative sexual partner? 4. What about survivors guilt if they die?

1 Most men don't know their HIV status, so you and I probably are already dating someone with at least HIV. Experience has taught me that even men who know their status will lie about being HIV positive at least until they are in a "serious" relationship, so you and I need to accept that fact and protect ourselves at all times. My next two lovers – 6 ½ years and 5 ½ years respectively – were both HIV positive and waited until we were living together many months, if not years, before coming clean about their health situation. Though I wasn't happy they kept it from me, I realized it didn't change how I felt about them one bit. Love is love and HIV or AIDS does not diminish it. If my partner suddenly came down with cancer or a brain tumor I wouldn't bounce on them, so what makes HIV or AIDS any different? They could live for fifty years anyway or get hit by a bus the next day. No one can predict the future.

2 What is the etiquette of dating someone with HIV or AIDS? This is a problem that me and many of my friends had to face in the 80s and 90s when the first round of the pandemic was in full force and it seemed everyone around us was sick and dying. The question was what was our responsibility to these men as their health worsened and they died. What I came up with then was, just because I go on a few dates with someone does not mean that I am now responsible for taking care of him when or if he becomes sick. Twenty years later I still don't know the absolute answer to this dilemma that will work for everyone, but for me I still feel I am not going to go through one more HIV or AIDS drama or death unless I absolutely have to and I don't. I paid my dues and buried more than my share of friends, family and even strangers just out of responsibility and necessity. Back then we didn't have a choice, it was a crisis situation, today we have many more options and newly infected men have a certain amount of fault and responsibility for their infection that didn't exist twenty years ago. So I don't think anyone has to make themselves the burden of someone else's self created health crisis or mess. Adults who make messes of their lives be it health issues, drug addiction, or whatever else are solely responsible for cleaning up their own messes. I am too busy putting out my own personal fires to volunteer to take on someone else's. So when I meet someone I am very clear with them up front that I am not interested in going through that kind of drama ever again, so if they need someone to help them with their existing health crisis, drug addiction, debt, etc., I am not him. If you are stable, sane and healthy and we fall in love and our lives become joined and your life worsens for any reason then of course I will step up to the plate and care for you as my life partner. So I suggest that others adopt the same policy, dating a man does not put you on the hook to be their care-giver no matter how long you date or have sex. Until you both commit to be a life-long couple, do not take on the responsibility for anyone's life drama or health issues. Trust me, experience has taught me it is not a road you want to go down. HIV burn out is a real thing and can make your life a living hell. I know we all want to pretend we are great people who cross little old ladies across the street and rescue cats from trees, but we have to be real with ourselves. We are only human and our first and primary responsibility in life is to take care of ourselves and if we fail to do that, we are no good to anyone else; no matter what we do or think. If you are that rare person with a life that is so great that you can add someone else's drama to your plate, then GOD bless your heart.

3 What are the safety issues for me or anyone else as the negative sexual partner? The reality is one million babies are born each year to couples who used condoms 100% correctly. That means even using a condom every time you have sex is not a 100% safety net; which is why they call it "safer sex" and NOT "safe sex." There is always some risk. It is also a fact that condom malfunction or "unsafe sex" occurrences increase significantly with anonymous, casual and new sexual partners. Therefore, I suggest you first decide just how much risk you really want to take. Be real with yourself BEFORE the sexual encounter even is a distant possibility. Too often we start out with a unrealistic or uncertain plan to be 100% safe, but as the night goes on and the drinks or drugs go down and the men start looking better and our desire for sex or just simple human contact starts to kick in, we lower and lower our resolve. We begin to bargain with our lives and rationalize ourselves into risky situations we regret later. I suggest everyone restrict the most risky sexual behaviors – anal intercourse of any kind – for only stable, continuous, sexual partners. I'm not saying you have to wait for "love", just for someone you know well enough to entrust your safety and health with. If you don't know his mother's name or been to his real place of residence, you probably don't know him well enough to engage in risky behavior. And please do not think that sexual position makes a significant difference. Anally receptive and Anally insertive partners are BOTH at risk and can contract HIV from even one sexual encounter. Do not fall for the myth or hype. That said, if you do decide he is the one or the time is right and an accidental HIV exposure happens DO NOT PANIC. This is 2006 and we have many options and factual information that did not exist twenty years ago. We know that it is a lot harder than we thought to get infected. Simple exposure alone to HIV is not usually enough to cause transmission. Certain other factors which are too many and theoretical to discuss now must be present. What is more important is that you know what to do in that critical situation. First, stop all sexual activity as soon as you suspect that your safety or your partner's safety has been compromised. Second, clean both of yourselves thoroughly with plain soap and water. Hopefully you were using a water based lube and it will be easily removed with soap and water. DO NOT DOUCHE OR GIVE YOURSELF OR YOUR SEXUAL PARTNER AN ENIMA TO REMOVE ANY BLOOD OR SEMEN. This is a very dangerous practice and will only make the situation worse and transmission MORE likely. If you were the anally receptive partner, try to force yourself to have some kind of bowel movement; even if it is only air and liquid. If you see the presence of blood you should go to a doctor within 24 hours of the sexual encounter. A temporary course of anti-retroviral medications may prevent HIV infection even after transmission if caught immediately; but remember it is not a certainty. Medication is always a touchy issue for people, but in this type of case, I strongly recommend a short preventative regimen to fight transmission at all costs. A week of discomfort is better than a lifetime of HIV infection.

4 Lastly, survival guilt of negative partners? It is not a certainty, but it is a reality. I have lost at least 50 good friends, 2 brothers, 1 best friend and 1 boyfriend to HIV and AIDS. Do I feel guilty for all of them? No. Some? Yes. It is a one by one situation. Example: Since I introduced my female best friend to my brother and he eventually married her and unknowingly infected her with AIDS and she died as a result I feel guilt. I was directly involved in the chain of events that led to her death so it is natural I feel some responsibility. Did I know my brother had HIV? No. Did he know he had HIV? No. It was 1979 and HIV didn't even exist as far as the scientific community was concerned, so we could never have predicted what was to happen, but that doesn't take the sting or loss out of her death or his death 21 years later. Did I try to help them both? Yes. 100%. But death is death and it is a hard pill to swallow no matter how it happens. The only true remedy to guilt is truth, love and God.
